

When and where can I buy tickets for On Stage 2024?

To buy recital tickets for On Stage 2024, go to our Recital page on our website, where orders can be placed starting May 11th at 12:00pm. If you're a VIP member for the 2024-'25 season, you'll get early access at 8:30am on the same day - keep an eye out for a personal one-time use code from Dance Recital Ticketing on May 10. Tickets tend to sell out quickly, so please don't delay when it's time to order. There is no limit to the number of seats you can purchase, but keep in mind that there is a finite number available. To ensure your group sits together, we recommend knowing exactly how many tickets you need prior to placing your order.

It's important to note that tickets are non-refundable and non-exchangeable, so please be sure to double-check your order before submitting.

Will I get to choose my seats?

Yes, you will have the chance to select your seats based on availability. There are four seating options to choose from, with tickets ranging from $15.95 to $25.95. If you require a wheelchair, be sure to select that option when ordering your tickets. And, if you opt for balcony seating, an elevator is available for accessibility.

Do I need a ticket for my dancer and/or musician?

No, you will not need to order a ticket for your child performing in the show as they will be backstage for the entirety of the show.

Does my 2-year-old need a ticket?

Children who are 2 years old and younger will not require a ticket for admission. However, do keep in mind that your little one will not be assigned a separate seat and will need to sit on an adult's lap during the performance. If you prefer a seat for your child, then you will need to purchase a ticket for them in advance.
